Faces of THS

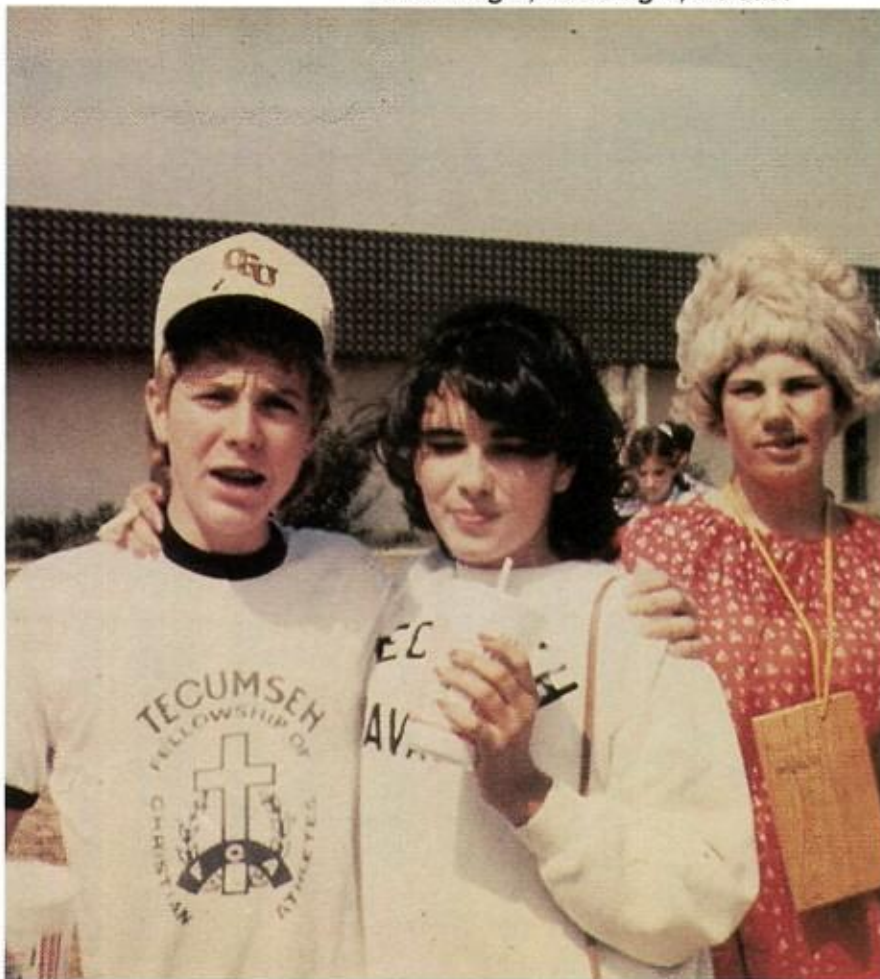

You know who they are; they're your friends, your teachers, and sometimes you. They are funny, cute, sympathetic, and serious. They are the faces of THS. One glance inside the doors of THS lets the visitor know that we are a collection of individuals. These individuals, however different they may be, are part of THS.

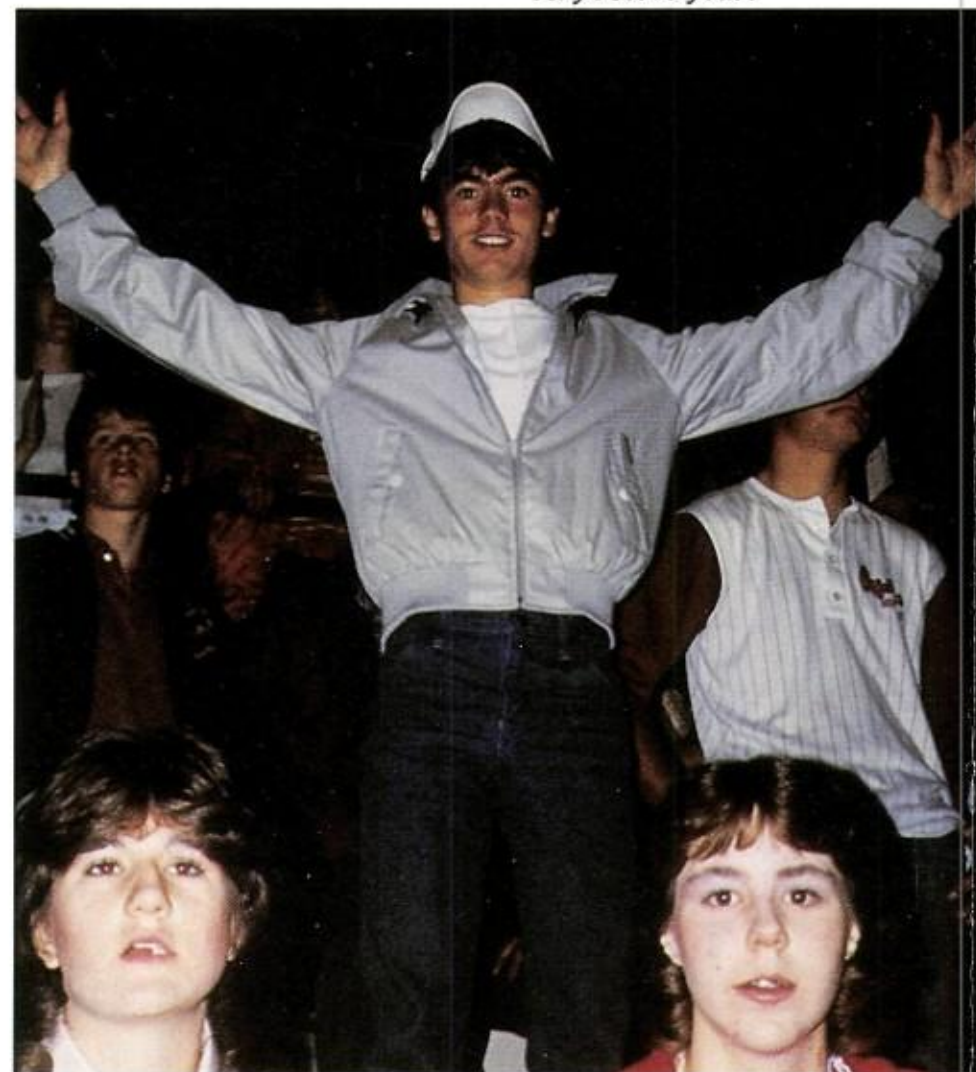

"That's right, that's right, we bad!"

May I serve you??

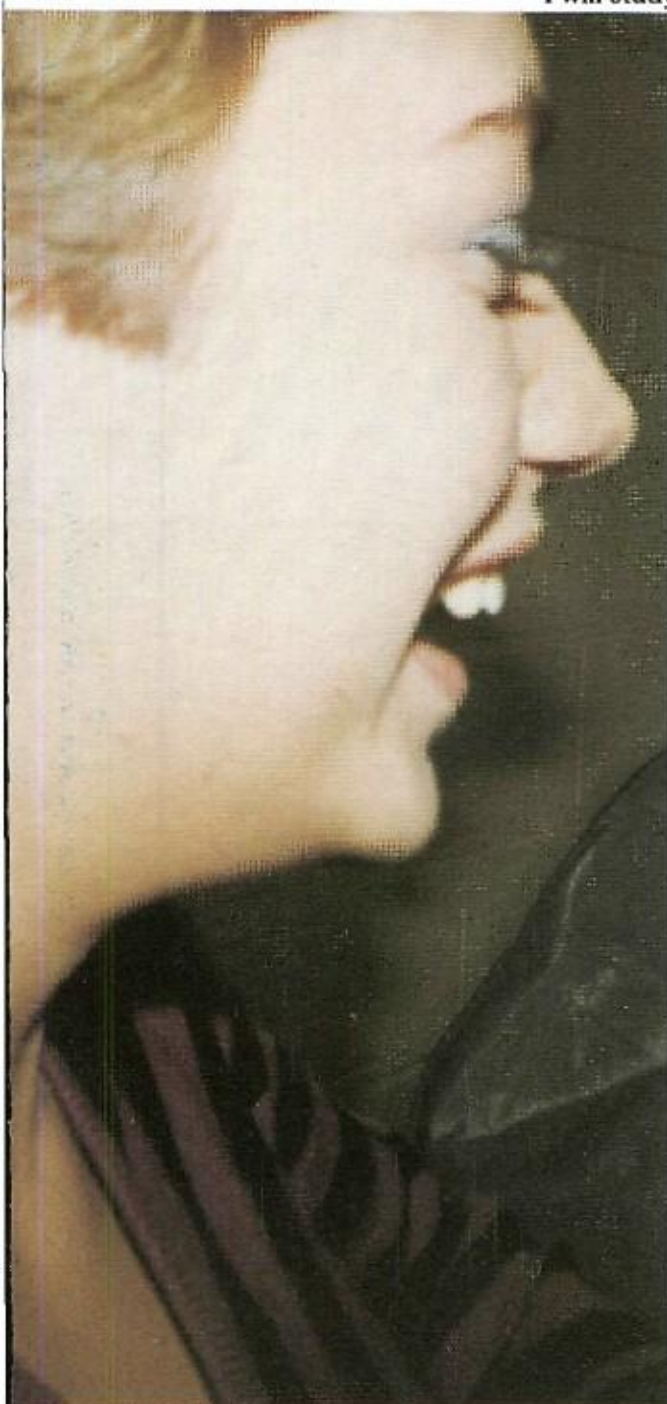

You wouldn't dare!

"It's hard to be humble."

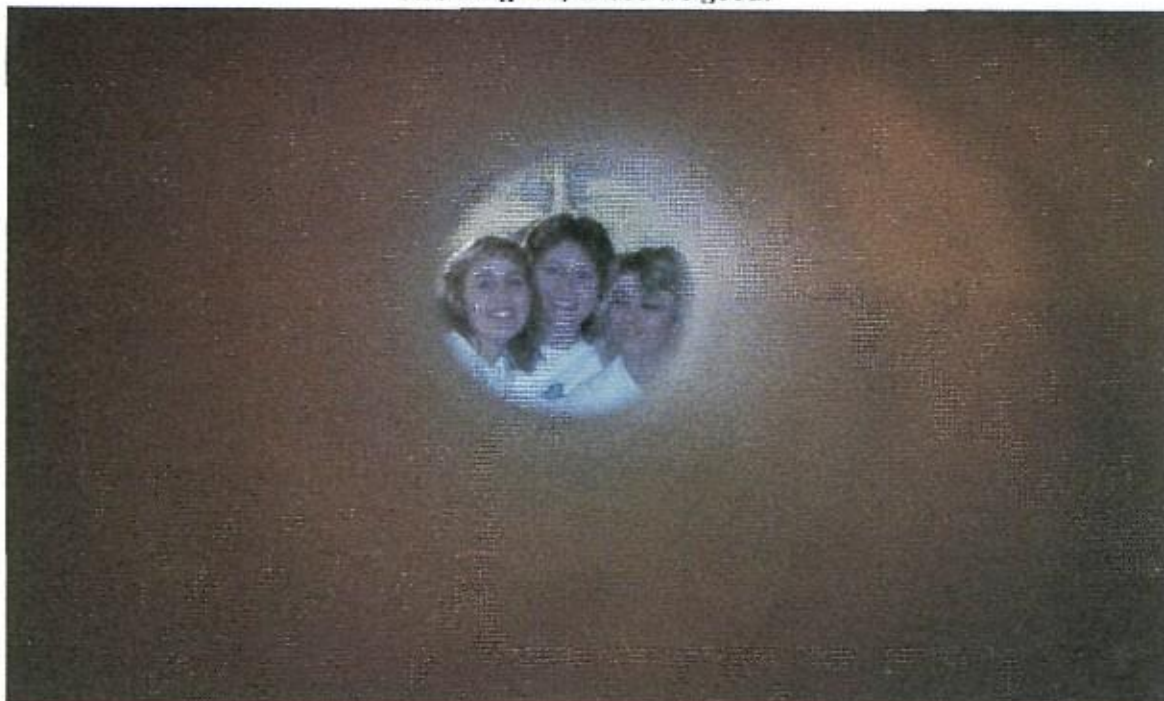

I will study, and get ready, and perhaps my chance will come.

No one knows like Rachel's nose.

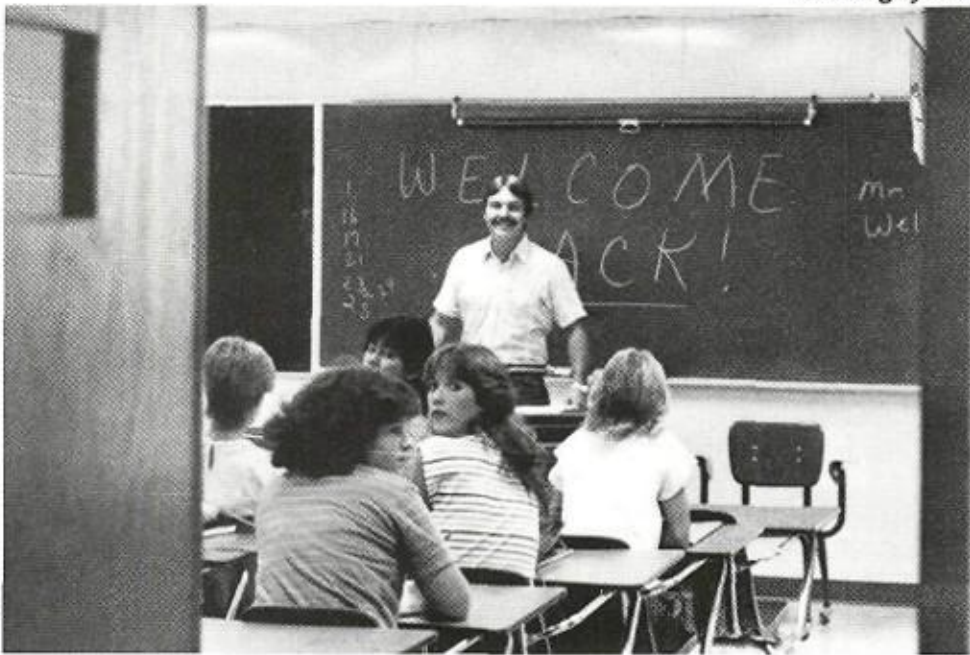

Are we good, or are we good?

Burrowing through the tunnel of life!!!

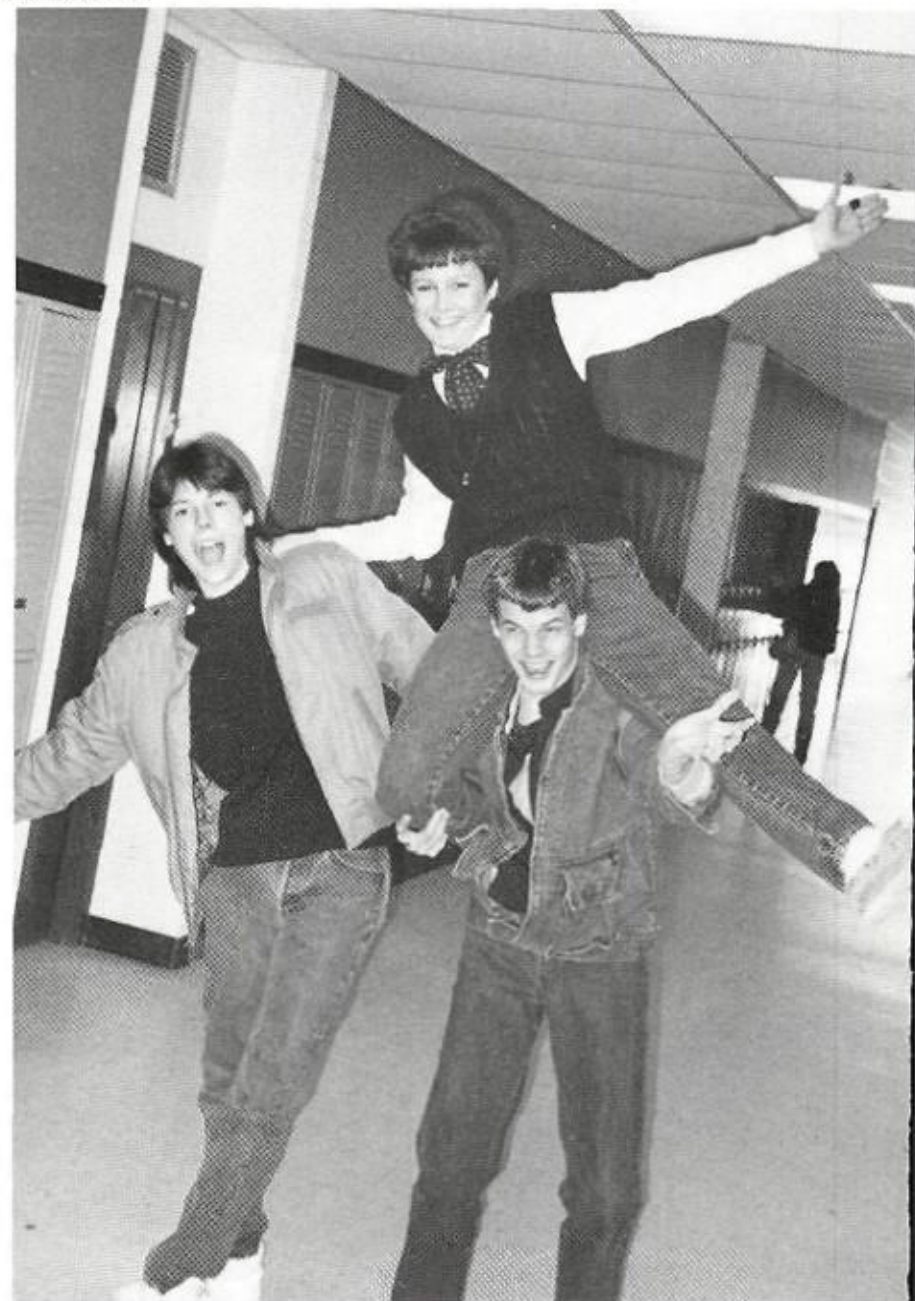

"Some guys have all the luck!"

A new year begins!!!

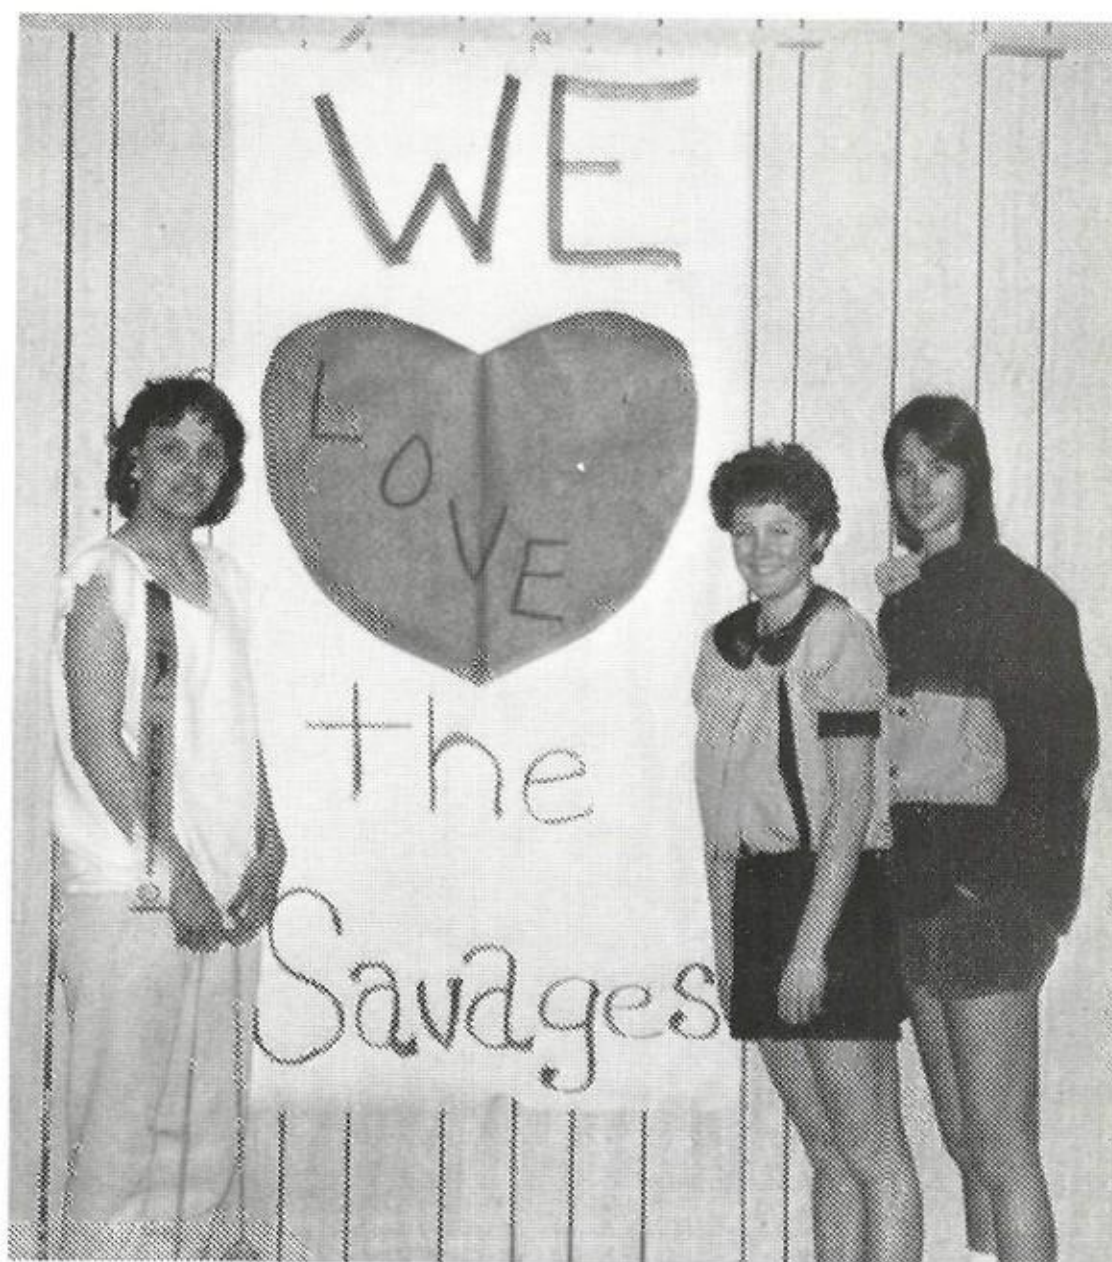

Am I seeing double???

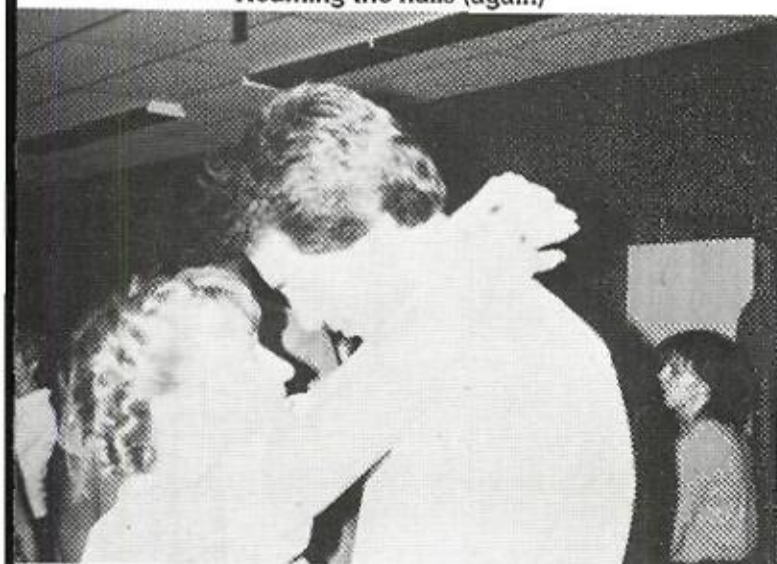

Am I doing this right?

Roaming the halls (again)

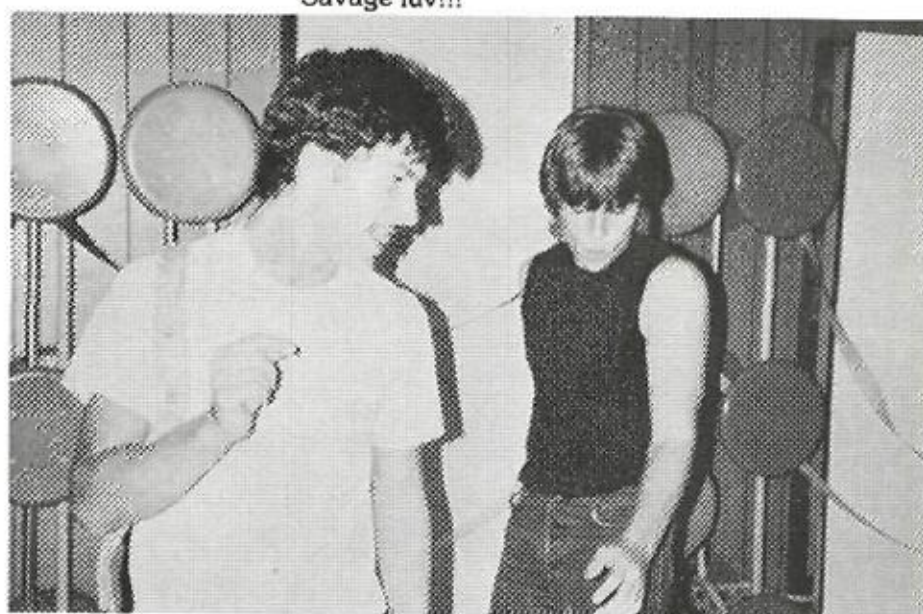

Savage luv!!!

Kissy, kissy!

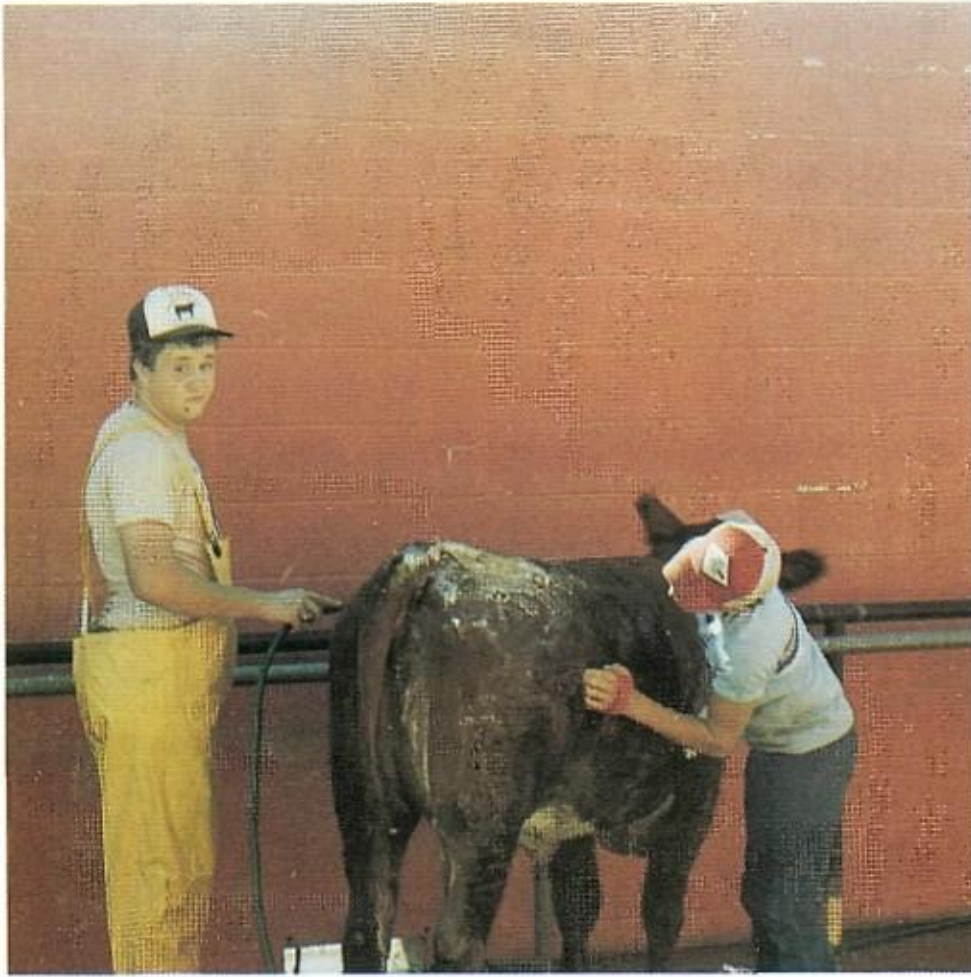

"Homecoming queen has a gun!!!"

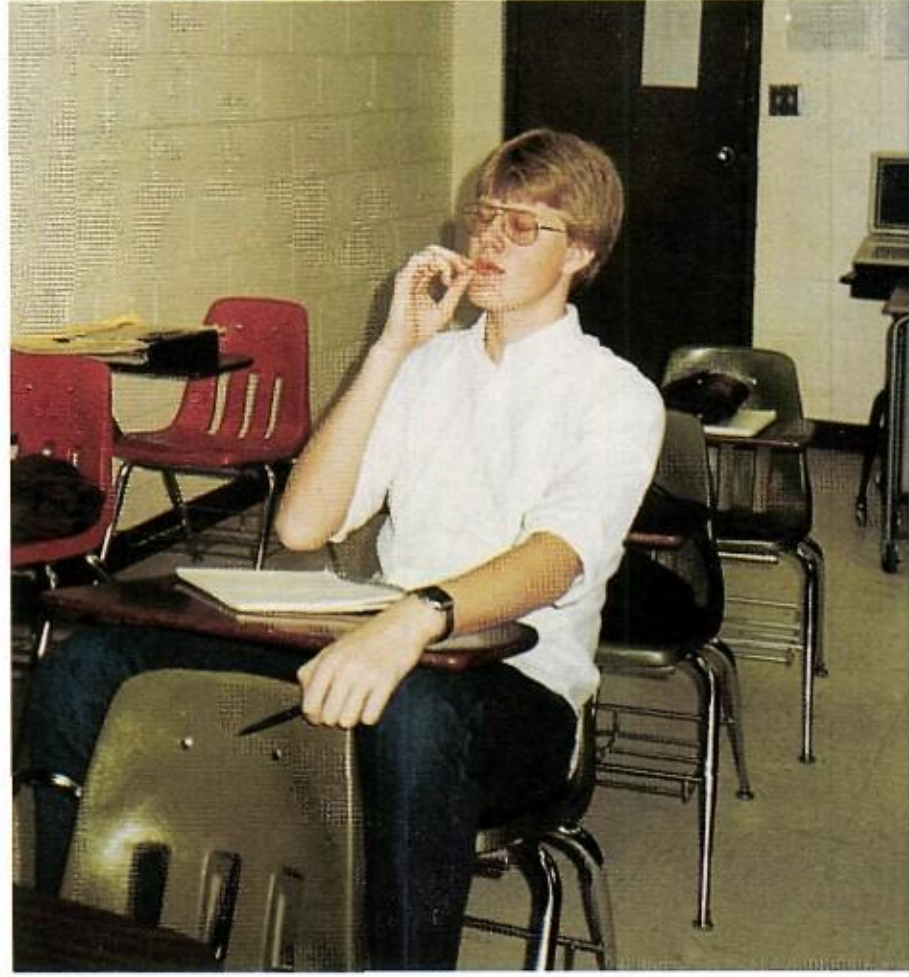

Man, are we good!

1985 was an exciting year for all the students at THS. From dances to pep assemblies to float making there was always something for everyone.

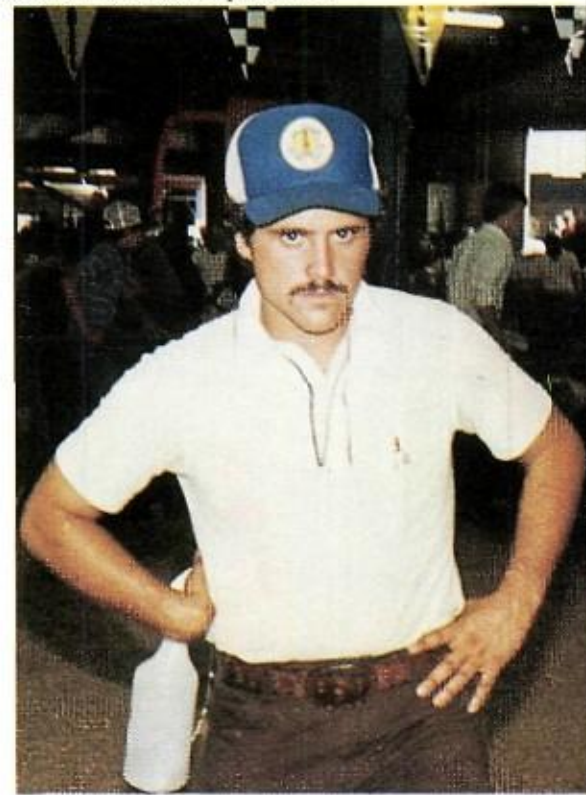

"Dirty deeds done dirt cheap!"

Lee and his favorite pastime!

Savage royalty punks out.

"You better be good to me!"

Is my eye still there?

The seniors' "spiritmobile"

This year Srs. went all out for homecoming by decorating Tommy Jessee's car with names and sayings. It was then driven in the homecoming parade and dubbed the senior "spiritmobile."

Not now Sherri, they are taking pictures.

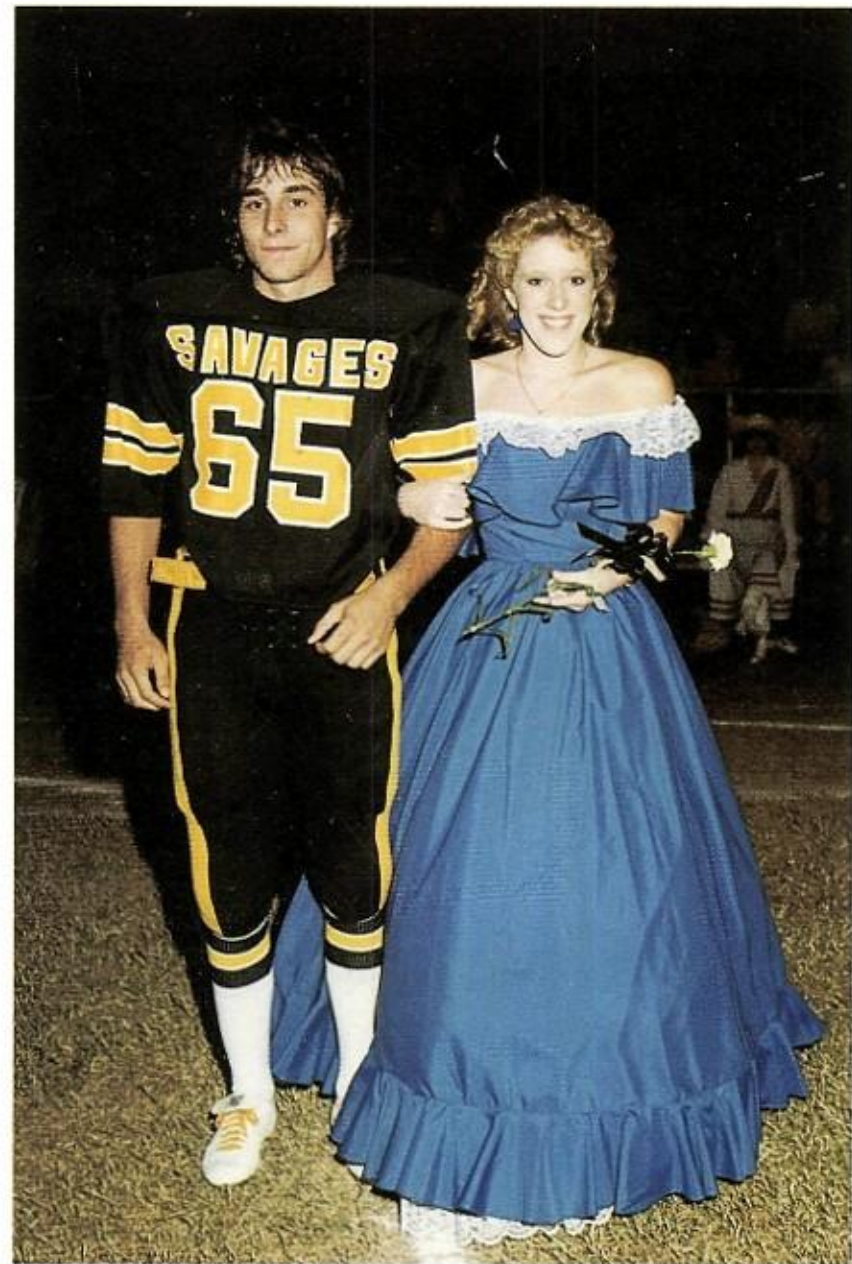

I'll do it now while they aren't looking.

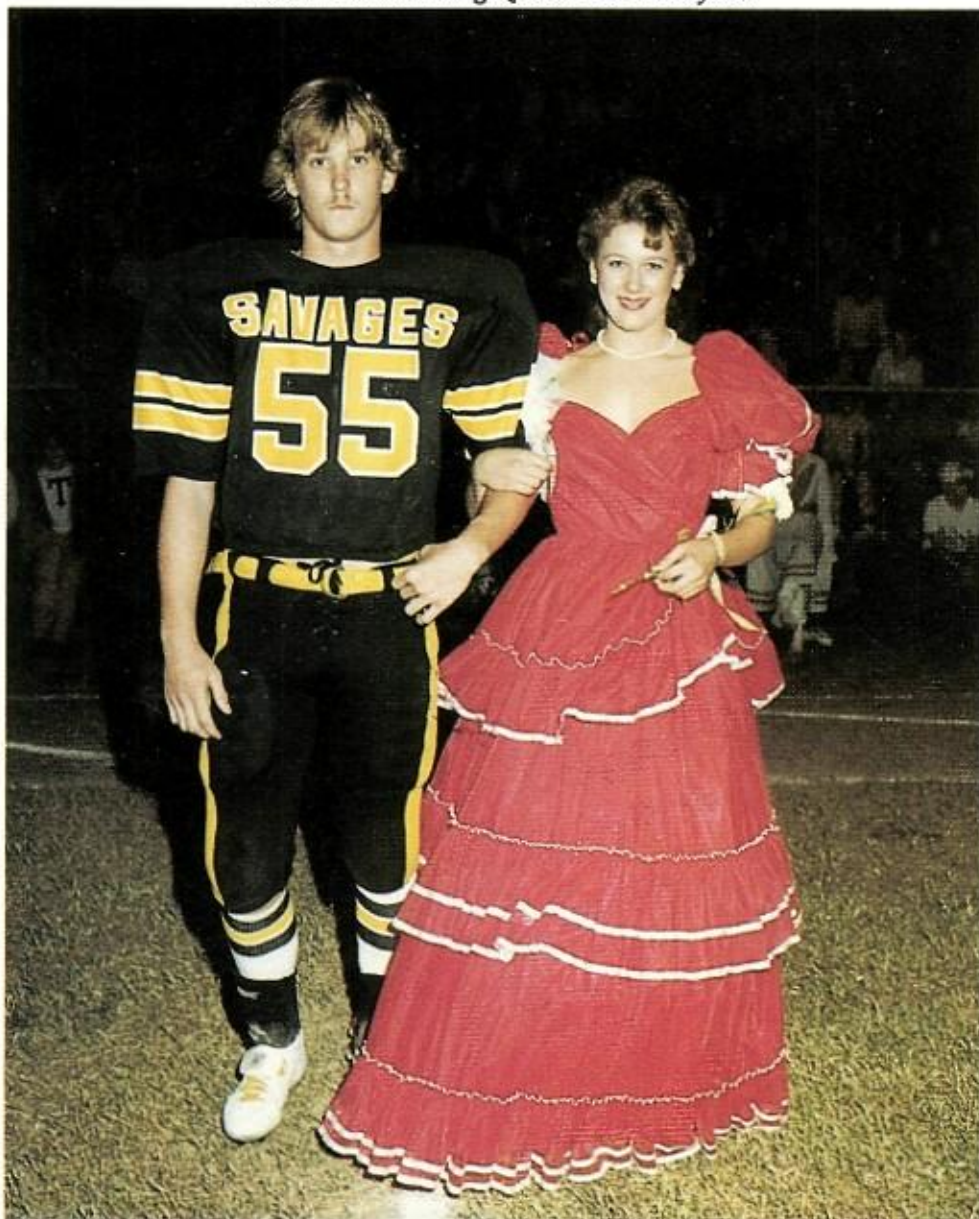

Now is our chance to box Mrs. Elder.

Freshman — Amy Straughan escorted by Richard Wolfe

Homecoming Picture Perfect

The 1984-85 Homecoming was picture perfect. The Savage football players showed a lot of self discipline as they proudly defeated the Harrah Panthers 48-14. This was truly one of the most impressive wins of the 1984 season.

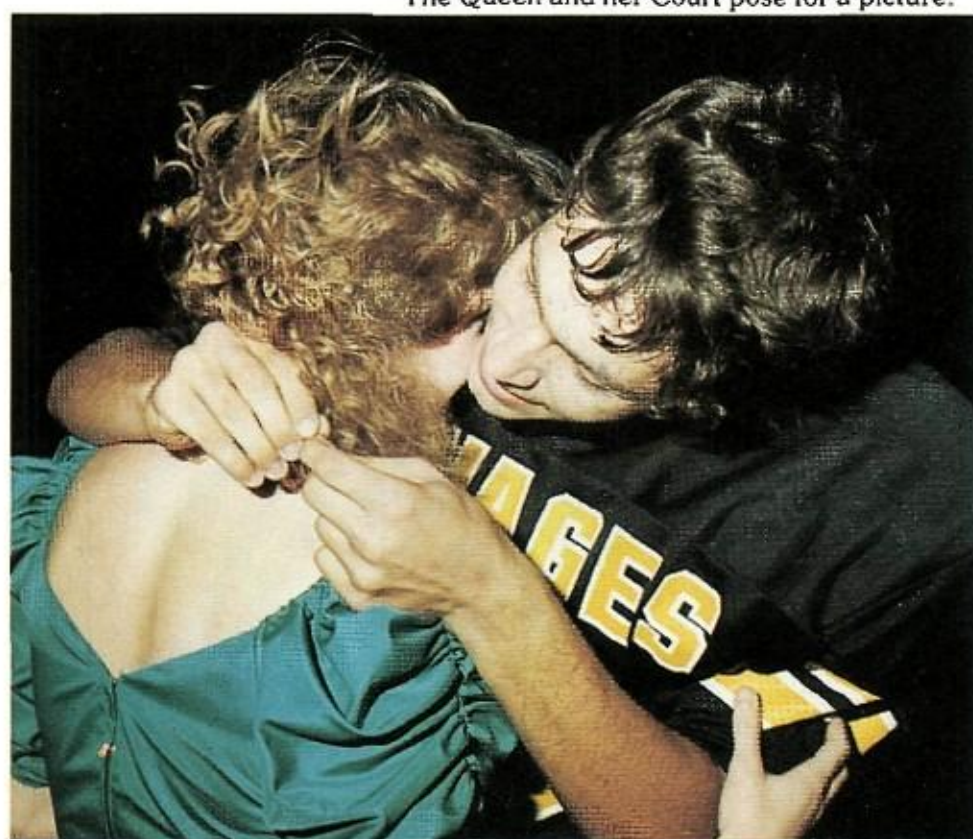

Sherri Varner the 1983-84 Homecoming Queen, handed the reigns over to Kara Meyers the 1984-85 Queen.

Cheerleaders '84-'85

This year the Cheerleaders went all out for their favorite school. The cheerleaders were Sr. Kara Meyers, Sr. Janee Cranford, Sr. Jacque Casey, Sr. Sherri Sherill, Jr. Kim Barnett, Jr. Jacque Barton, and Jr. Sherri Varner.

Cheerleaders spread their spirit.

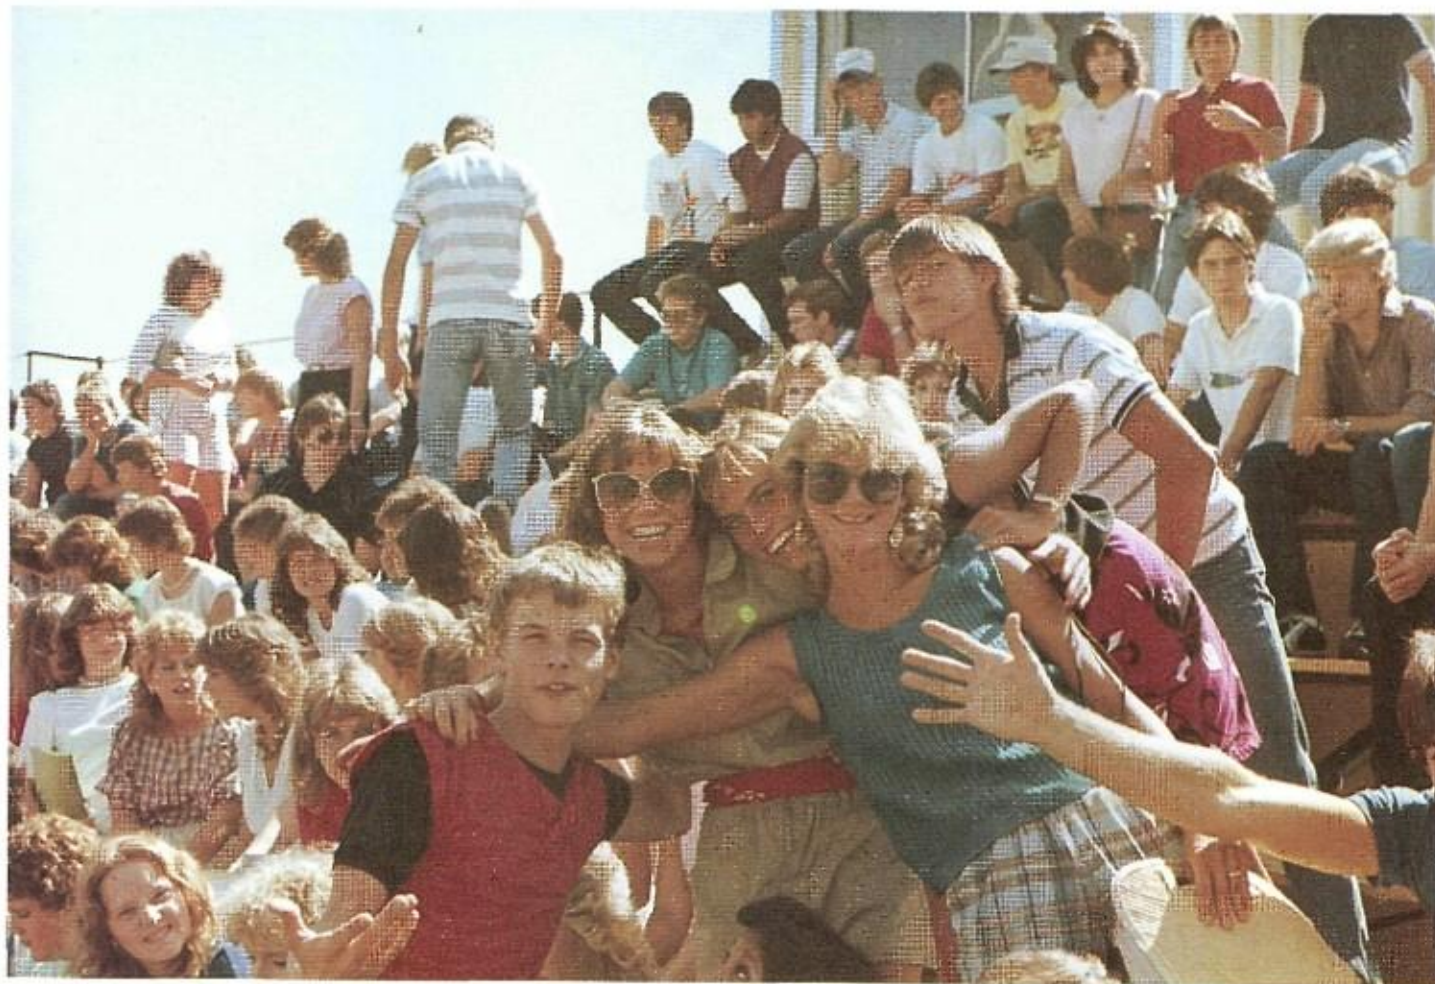

Cheerleaders reach new heights.

Janee and Kara show that they got the beat!

The 1984 football season was full of surprises. Homecoming was marked full of femininity, but these young ladies soundly defeated the Harrah Panthers.

Jr. Ronnie Littleaxe was a very effective weapon for the Savages. Just wait till next year!!!

Spring Takes Off With Kites

Mr. Arrington's Arts and Crafts class decided to take advantage of the warm March winds and learn to make kites.

They each made kites and then took them outside to test fly them. It was a very colorful event and a lot of fun for those who joined in.

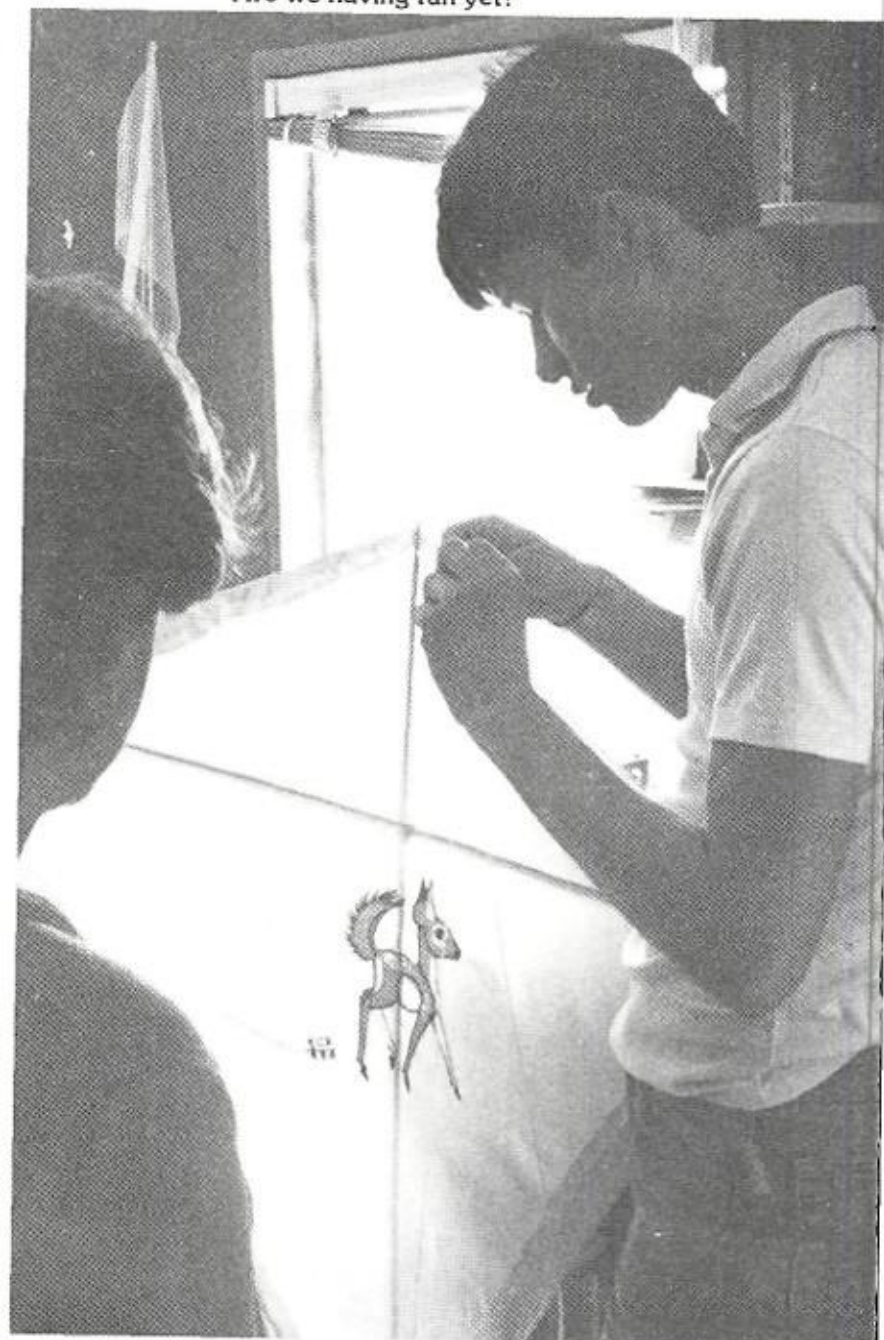

"Are we having fun yet?"

"Do you really think it will fly?"

FCA

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes is for the Christians in our athletic program at Tecumseh.

This year they attended a rally at Ada, challenged the Bethel F.C.A. to a game of volleyball, and also played against Youth Alive in several volleyball games. F.T.A. sponsors Coach Murry and Coach Johnson have done a fine job with this group and they appreciate their sponsors very much.

Sophomores Take All!!!

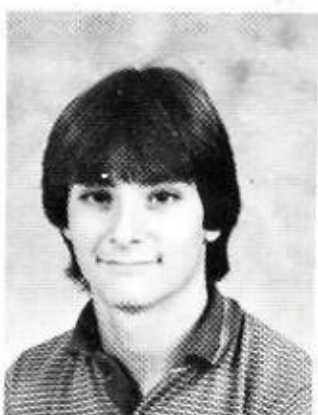

This year's Sophomore's float was titled "Stomp the Panthers." With all the hard work they put in the float it all paid off. The float came in first place!!! The float was built at Mike WolfenBarger's house. This float took a lot of time and patience, which the sophomore class has a lot of. They were creative and knew how to use their time wisely.

Faculty Kazoo band was a big hit at powderpuff football game. Practicing for a week, a room was of no use to the Tecumseh Faculty Kazoo Band. Although the musical quality was not high, the enthusiasm was. The Kazoo Band played such rousing tunes as "Oklahoma," "On Wisconsin" and "Oh When the Saints Go Marching In." The Band was led by Jerry Vinson.

Love Dad

Wasn't high school great.
Remember the fun you had.
Now it is time to shout out loud.
"I'm a T-Town grad!"

Congratulations

I love you, Mom

I am not wearing that hat!!!

Ain't we just adorable???

Me and my buddy 'til the end!!!

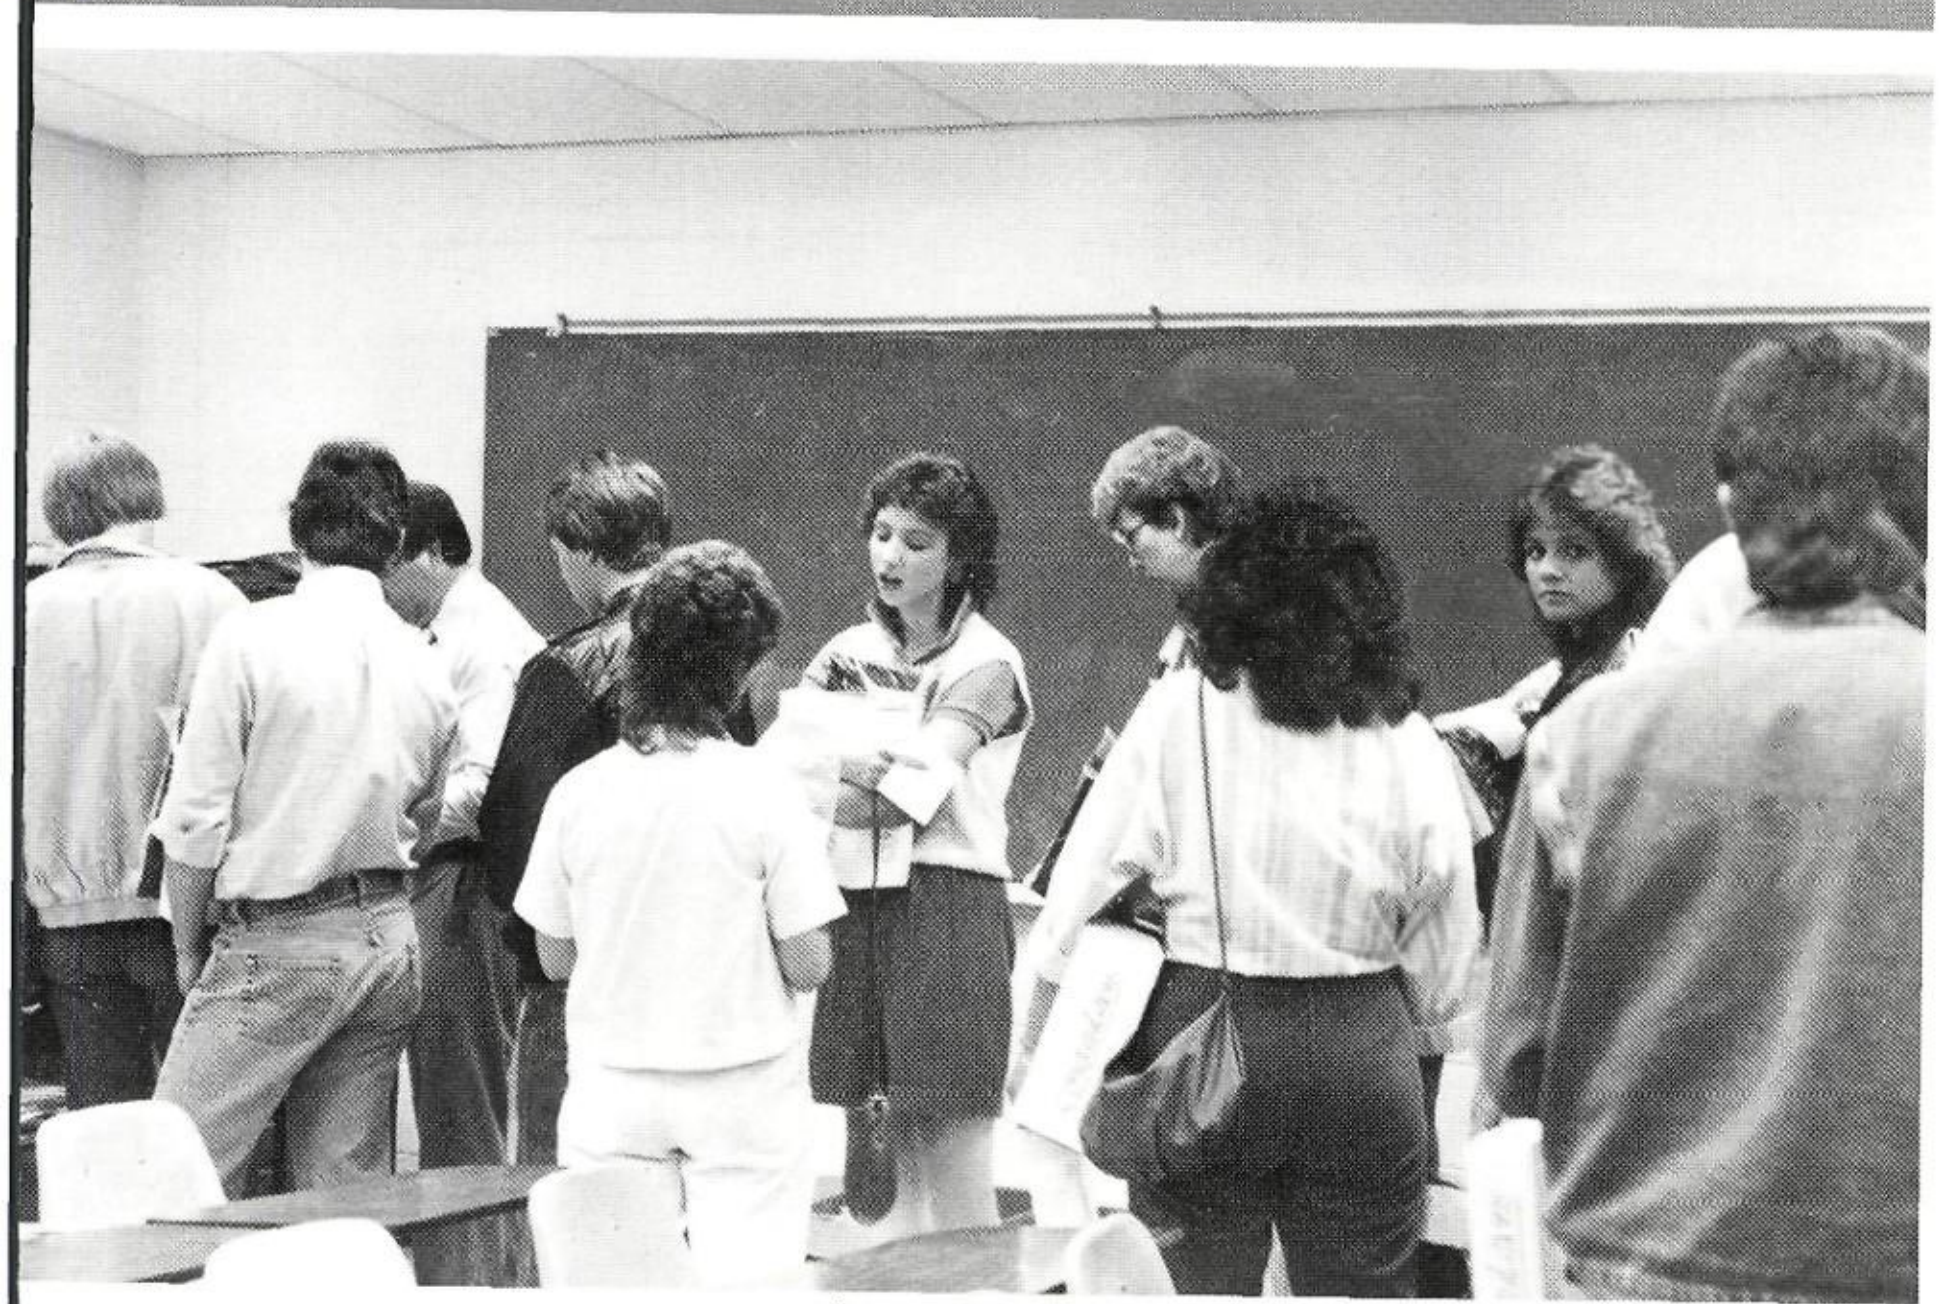

Step on in, Sherri.

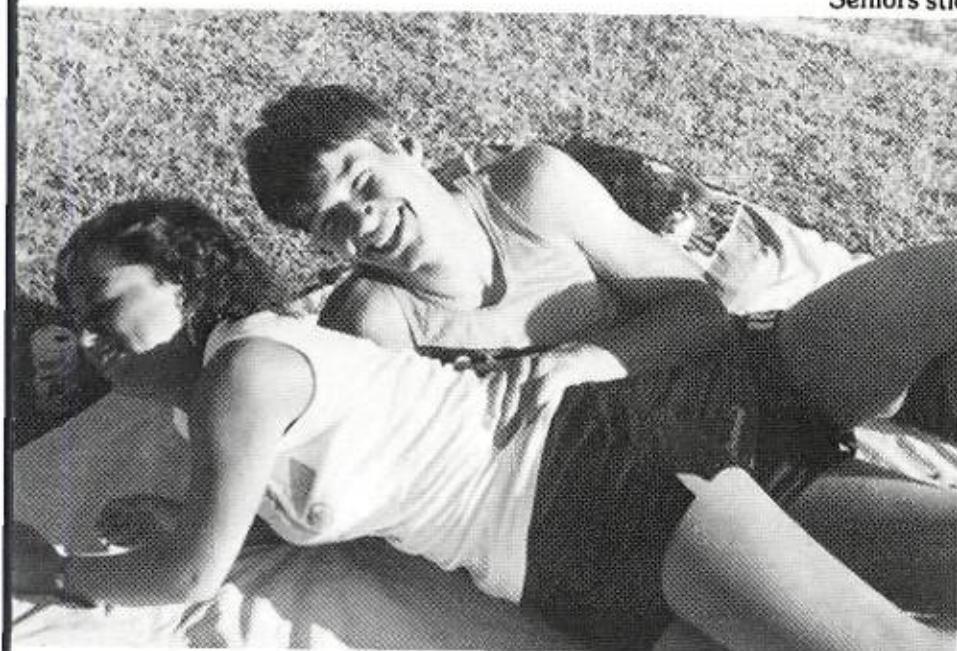

Say "Better Cheedars."

"Seniors' Last Moments"

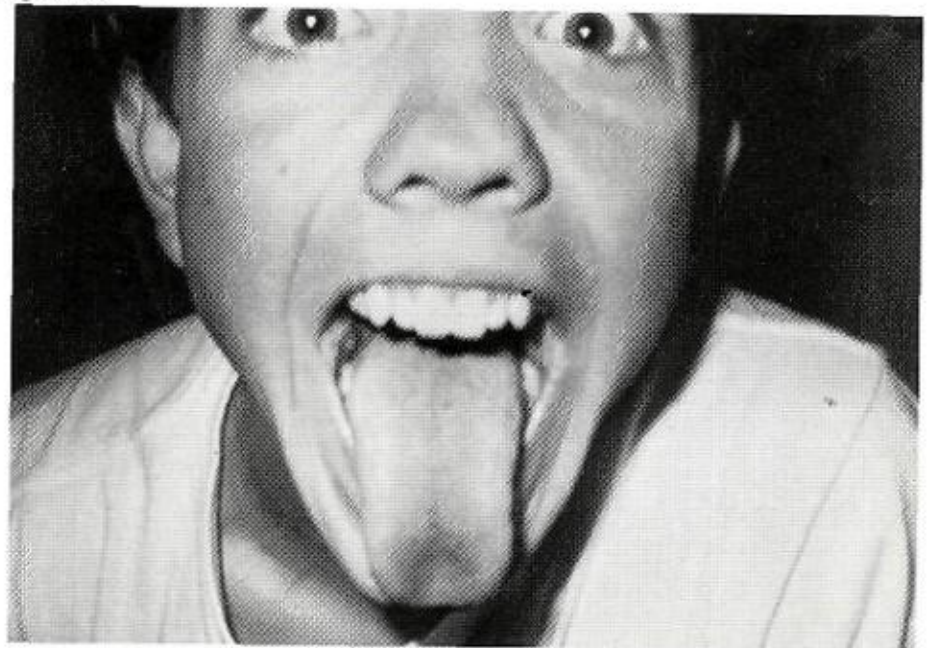

Seniors have fun, while they look at both the past and present years. Remembering all the times they've spent together, and all the times to come.

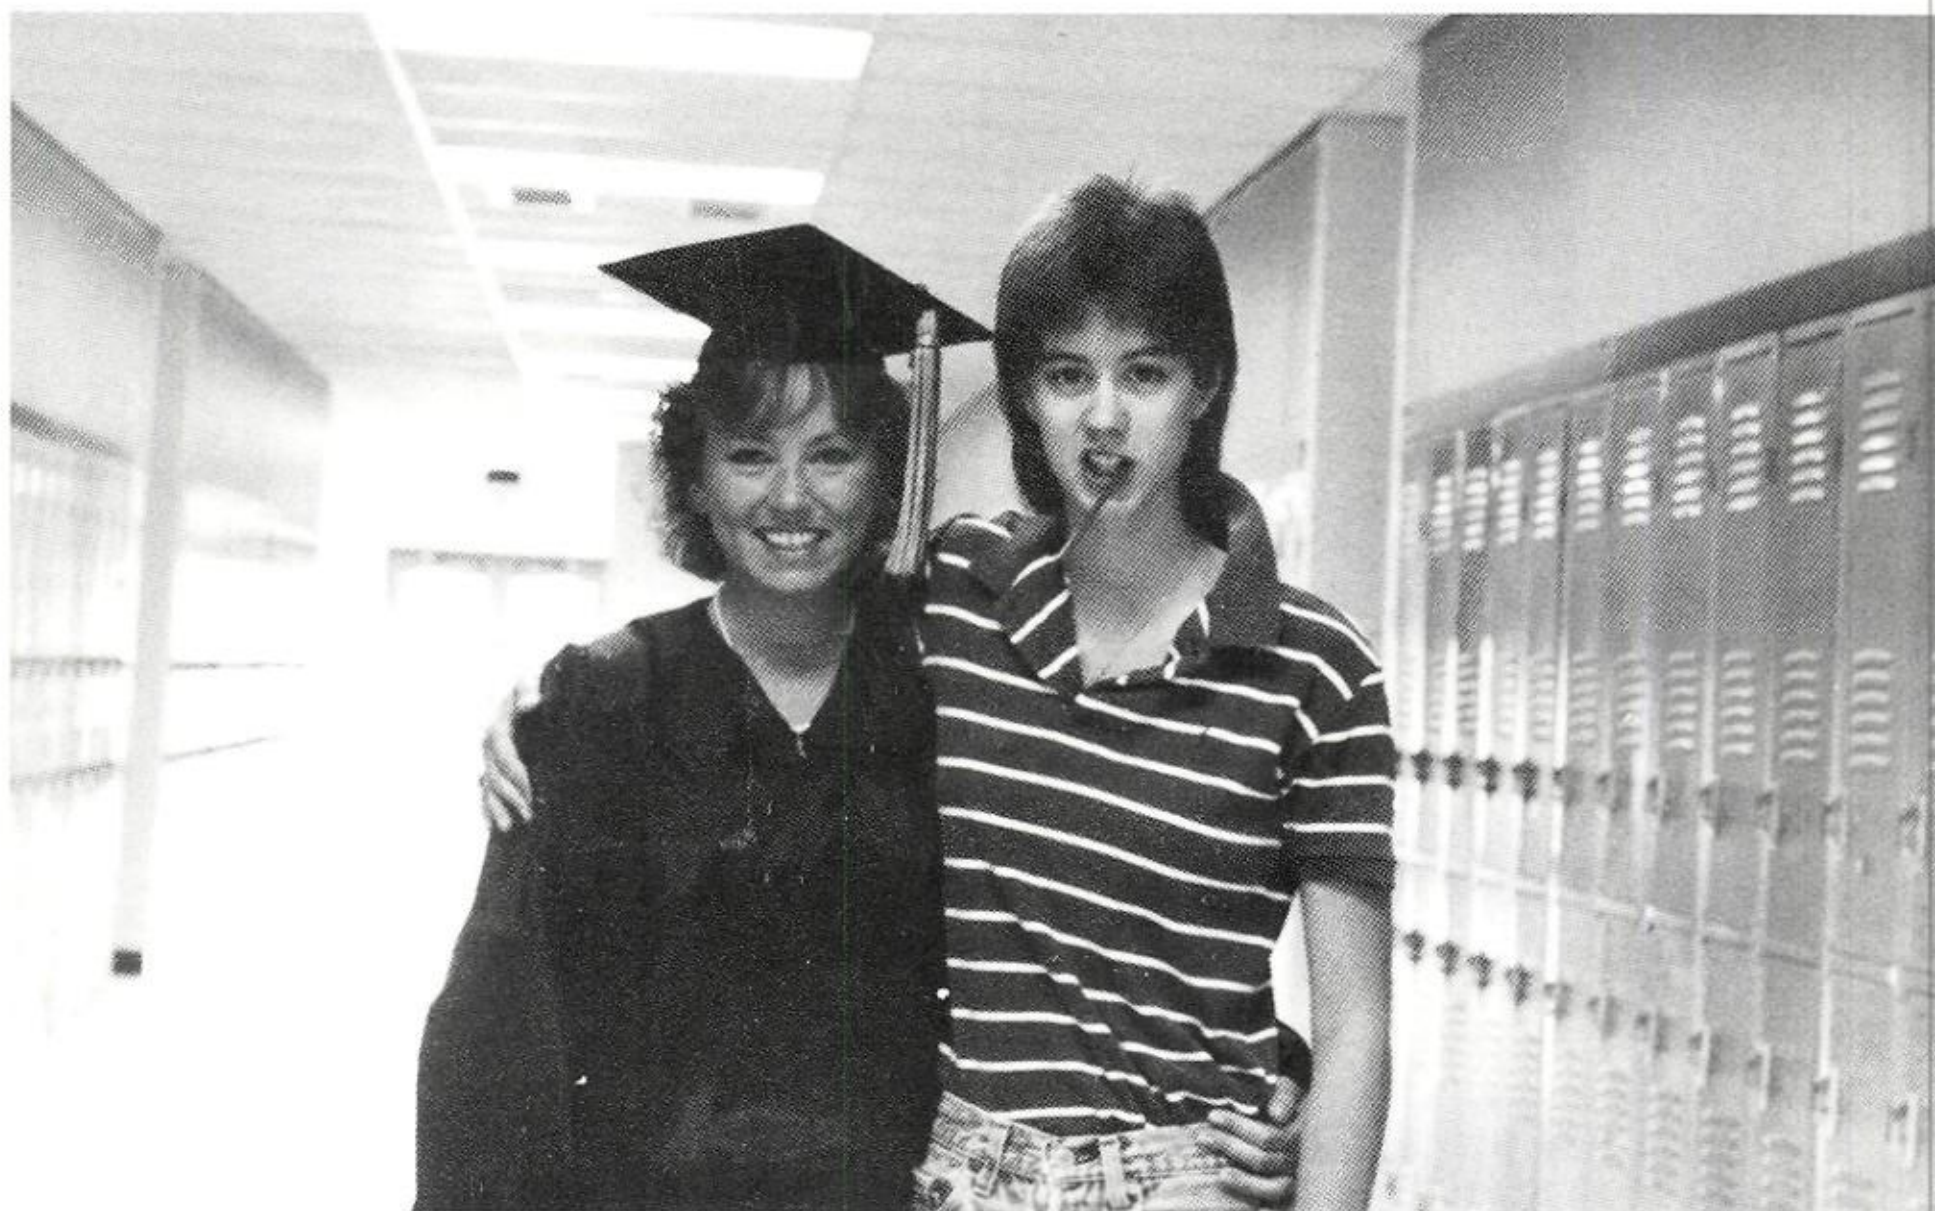

Seniors stick together.

Leslie Ticklish?

No cavities Ma

Hurray! We finally made it!!!

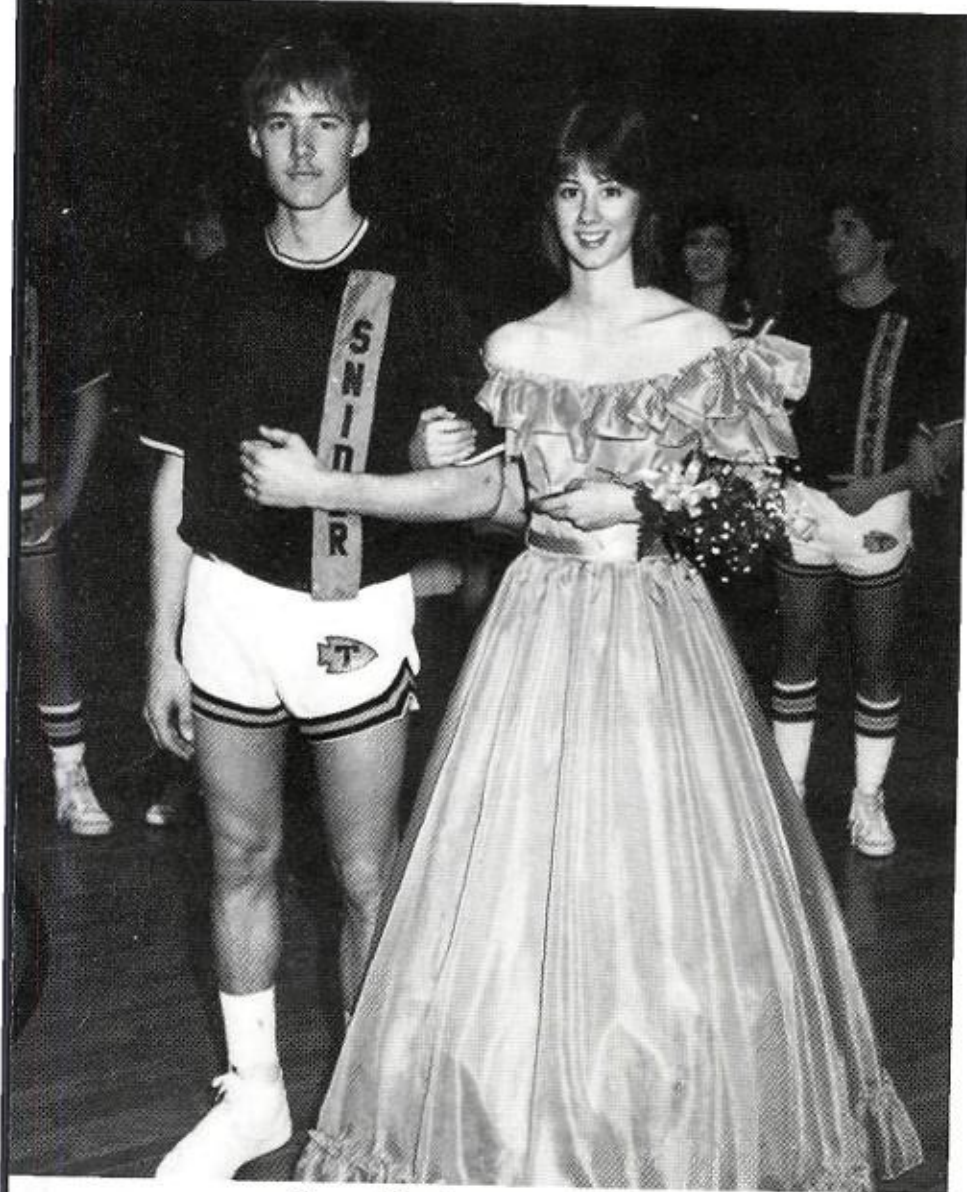

Best Friends Forever!!!

Hey! Take it off Kara!!!

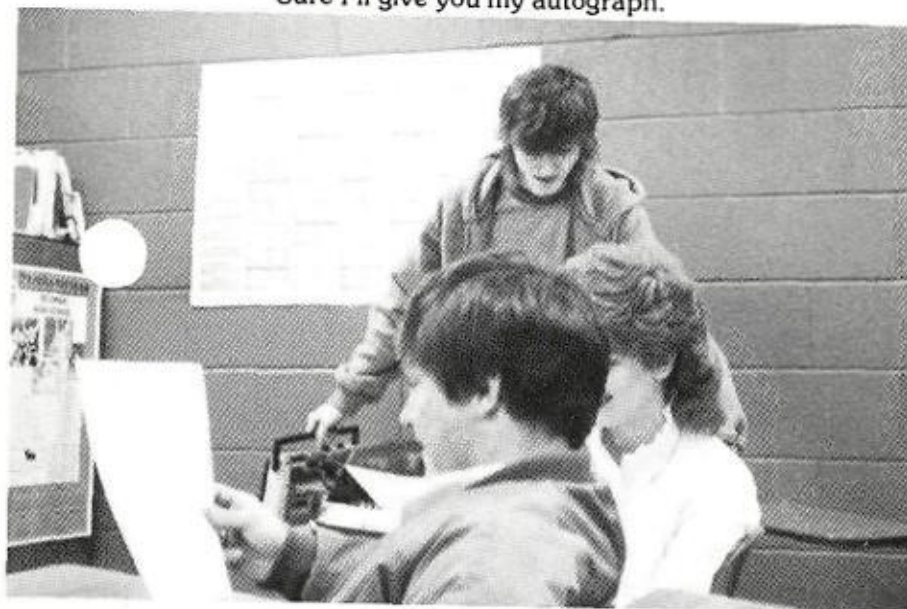

Mike takes up the teaching profession.

Greg + Sherri support seniors.

Sure I'll give you my autograph.

Fun, Fun, Fun!!!

I'm graduating!!!

Well, I'm broke now!

Yeap! we're Seniors.

Angie's talents show through

(G. Snider, L. Webb) Amazing!

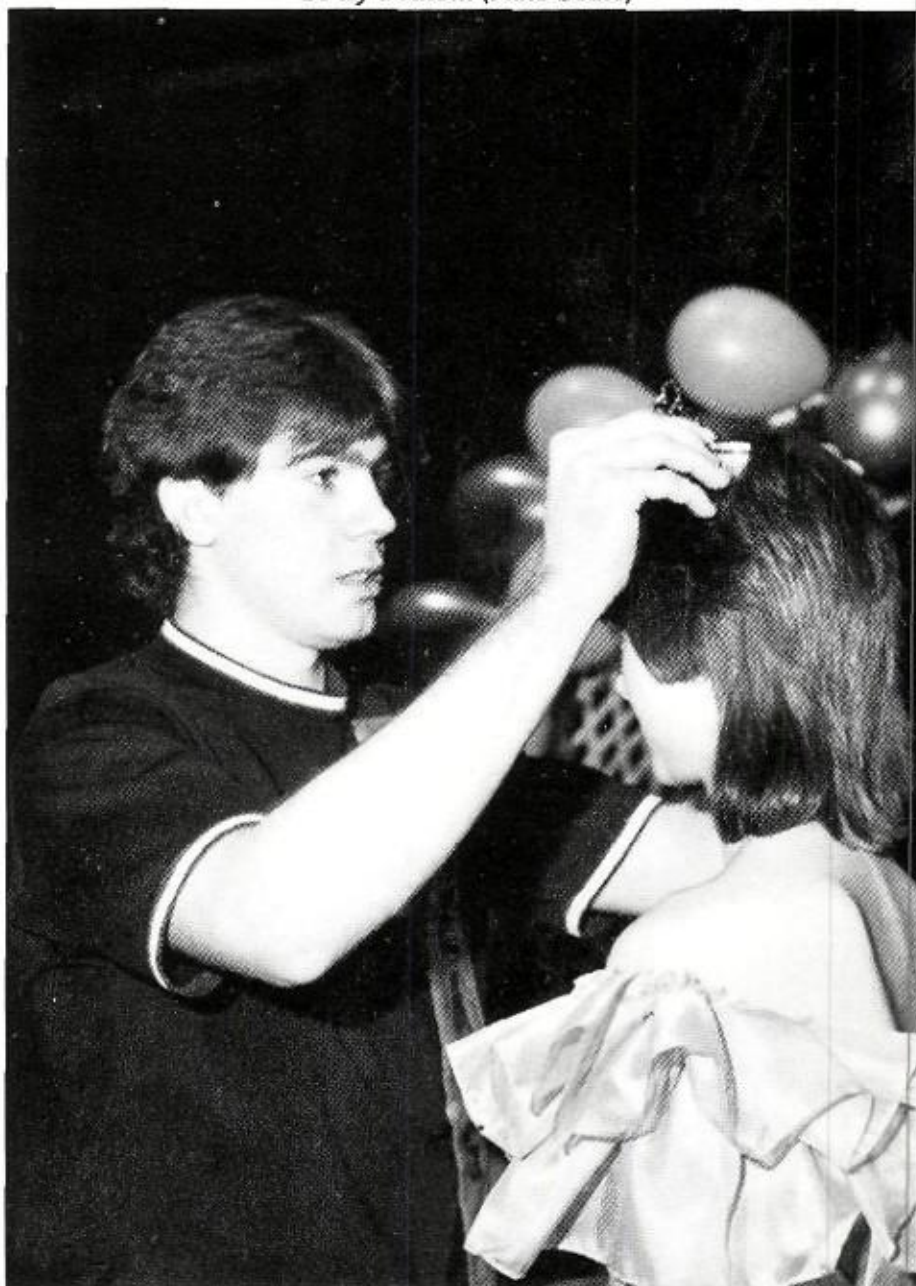

Isn't he cute (L. Patten, Brett V.)

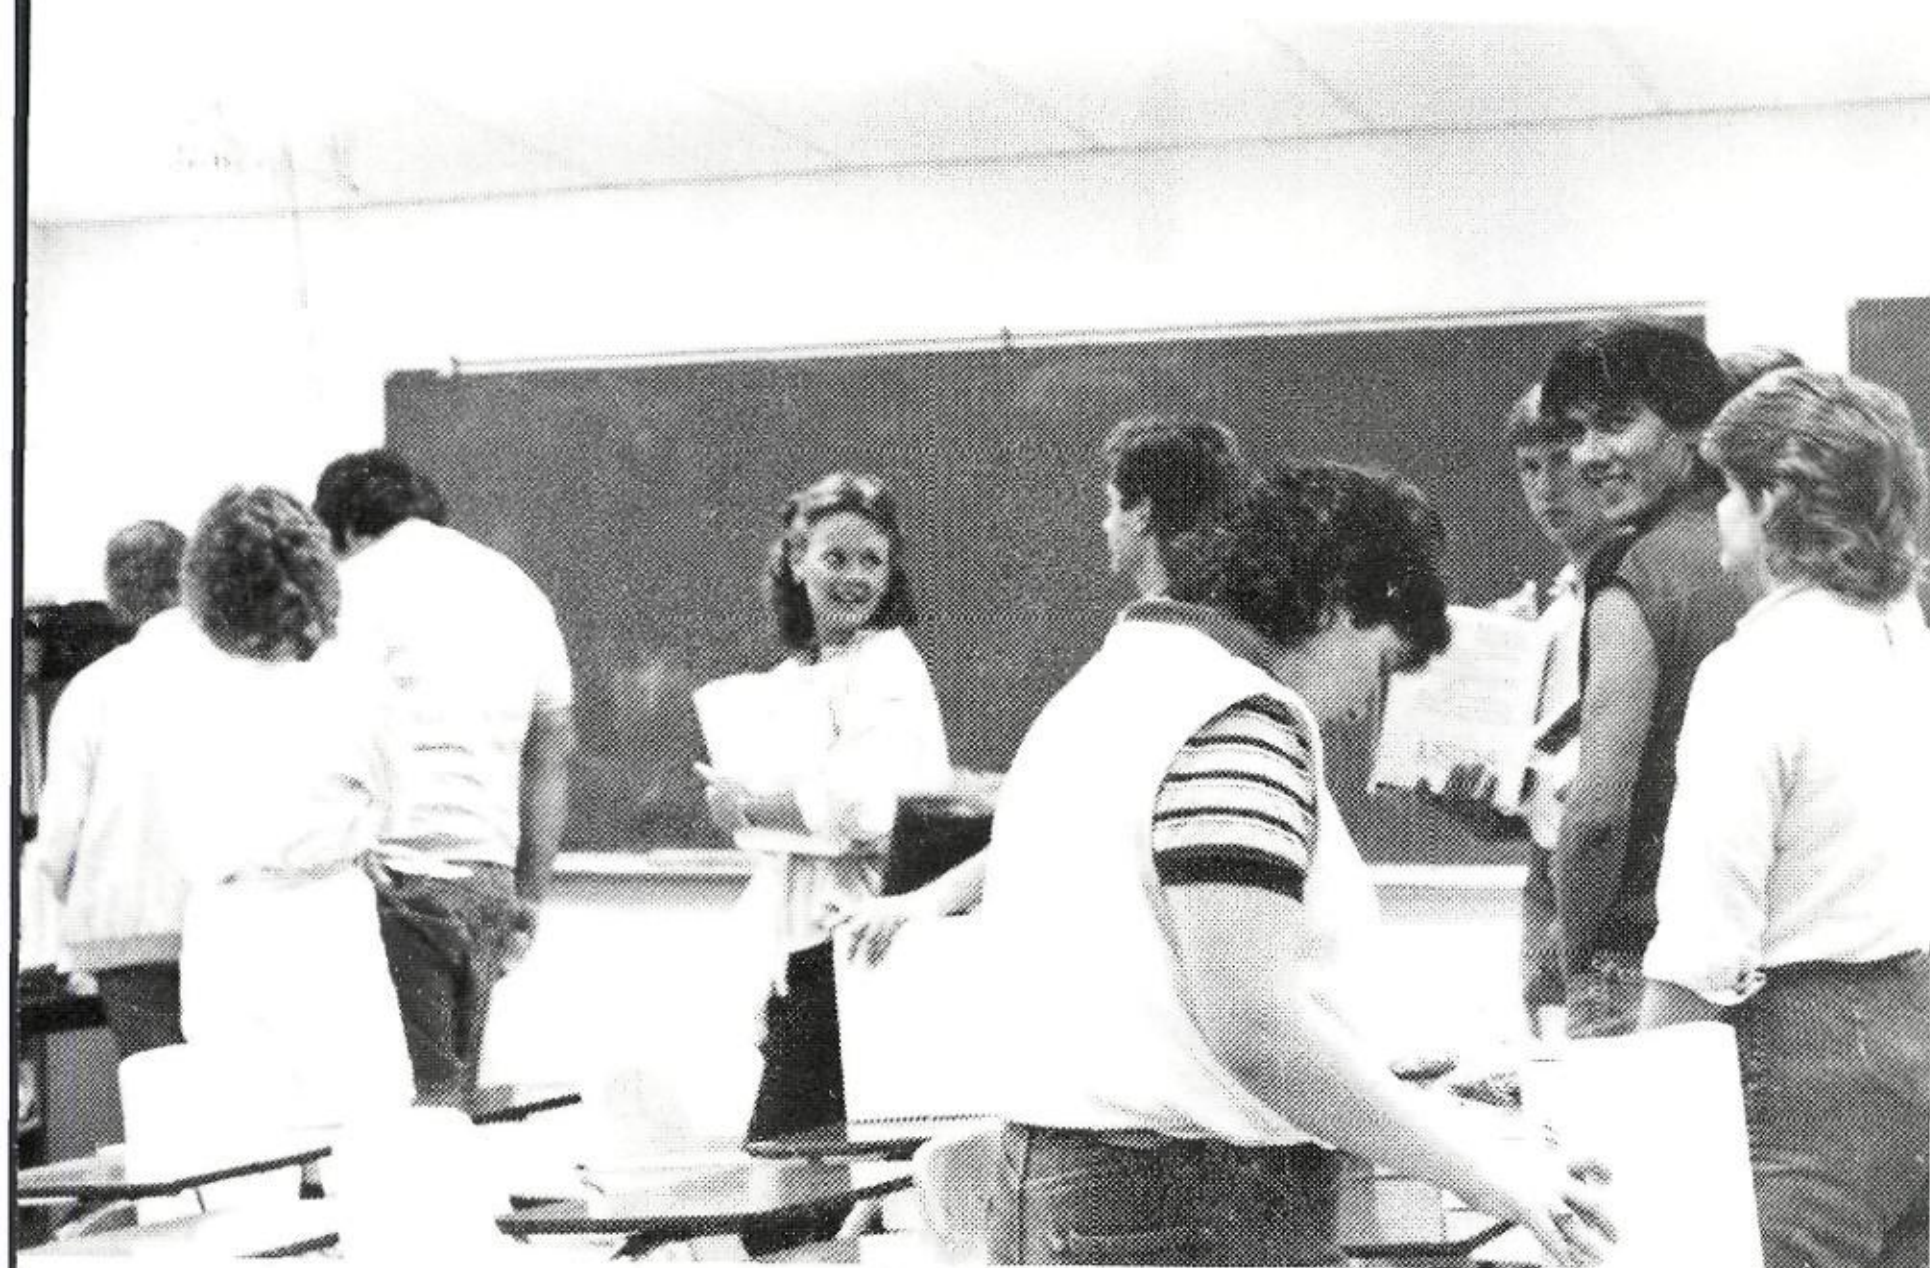

Go fly a Kite!!! (Mike Sears)

Watch your step.

Mike carefully crowns Sherri

Robin keeps calm.

(Kim B. + Tina F.) Tina achieving

Super Woman!! (Kara Myers)

Super Singer!! (Bill Phillips)

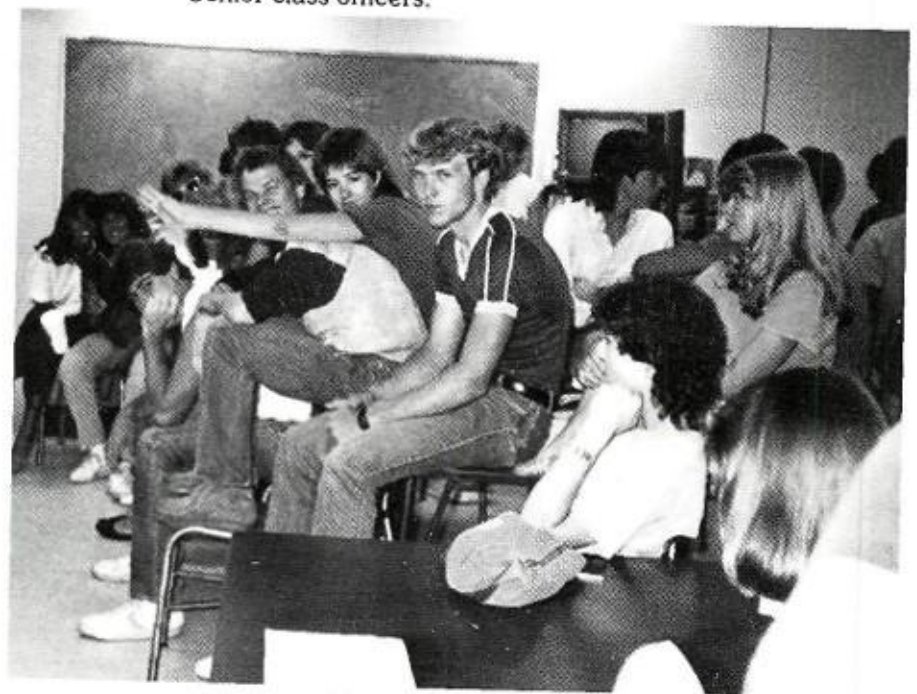

ALL WORK . . .

Senior class officers.

Look at this muscle

Miles says "Lets Vote"

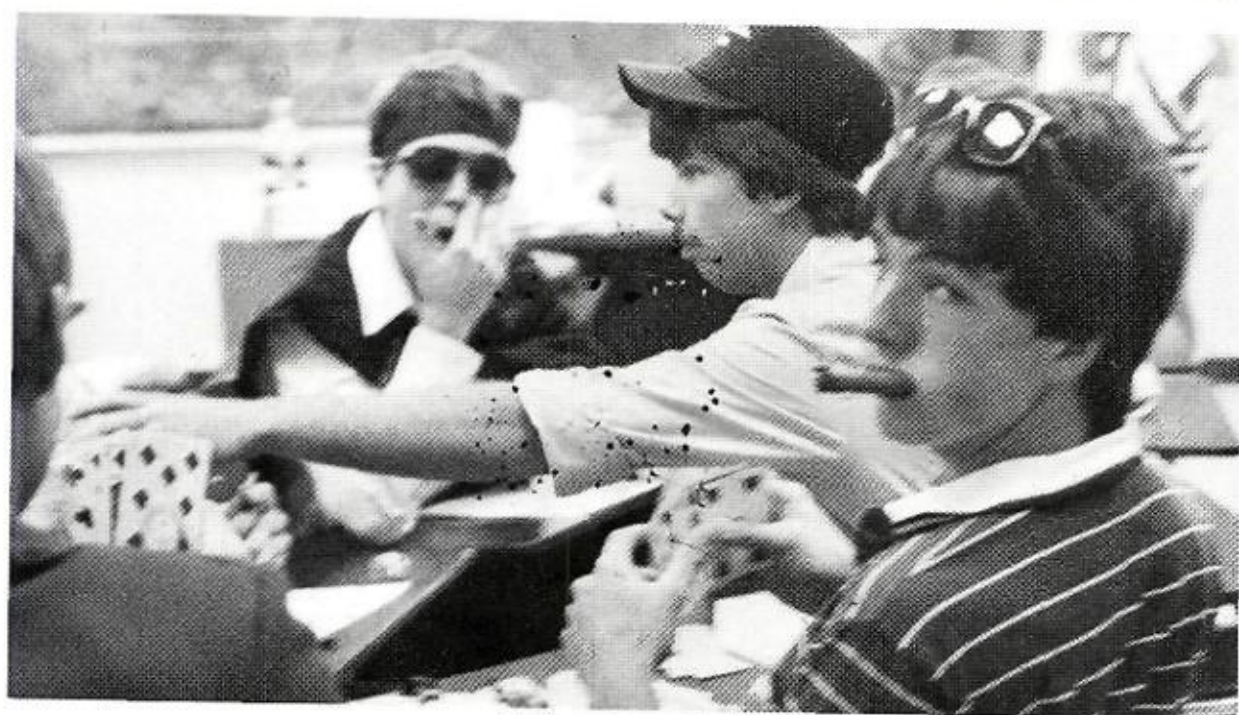

Janee (My zipper is stuck!!!)

Smile Robin!

AND NO PLAY

We're not gambling!

Cowboy at heart.

Pigs.

No! its a queen of hearts

Super Savage Snap Shots

Joy is full of energy.

Don't you push that button.

"Waldo" is really wacky.

Memories linger in shadowed areas of the mind
To be recalled, unbidden,
by a sound or smell

Words of shared secrets
echo in the dimmed halls
Cheers of enthusiastic crowds mingle among the empty bleachers

Disjointed impressions recombine softening the present
Reminding us we are building the memories of tomorrow.
